

	Exploring	Beginning	Growing	Maturing
1 A life of Worship	I attend worship when a friend invites me, when it is convenient, or when I feel a need.	I attend worship regularly, but I am struggling to realize that I must attend to God every day.	I attend worship regularly and set aside time daily for personal worship.	I honor God in the ways I work, play, and engage others in relationships.
2 A life of Hospitality	I am curiously drawn to the Christians who graciously accept me as if I belong with them already.	I am called not only to receive, but also to offer God's gracious acceptance to others.	I seek to relate to others both in the church and beyond in ways that reflect God's hospitality to me.	I intentionally seek to build relationships with unchurched people in order to share God's love.
3 A life open to Jesus	I am drawn to the story of God's love and am beginning to explore the scriptures for myself.	I am developing a daily practice of prayer, scripture, and devotional reading, opening myself to God.	I am exploring new spiritual disciplines and experience a greater level of intimacy with God.	I am taking responsibility for my own growth through the daily practice of spiritual disciplines.
4 A life of obeying Jesus	I understand more about Jesus' teaching through Bible Study classes and my own reading.	I have accepted the call to be a follower of Jesus Christ and am committed to being part of the church, becoming like Jesus and serving others.	I am daily seeking to apply the teaching of scripture to my own life.	I am partnering with God to help others grow in openness and obedience to Christ.
5 A life of Service	I am often amazed at the way some disciples selflessly serve others and I want to make a difference as well.	I know Christ invites me to join him serving others and I'm discovering how God has gifted me to do this.	I experiment with serving in different areas as I discover my gifts, talents, and passions.	I join Jesus in mission to others using my God-given gifts, talents and passions.
6 A life of Generosity	I give some when I attend worship.	I am giving more and more regularly	I am tithing and reconsidering how I spend the other 90%.	I am tithing and consciously reordering my life to free up more resources to honor God and bless others.
