| Chase | Braden | South | Centenary UMC New Albany | Male | White | 19 - 30 years old | Yes | 3 | I have grown up in my church and served in many ways in the choir, food pantry, liturgy, missions, and representing my church in previous years to AC. I have represented my church at AC since 2016 as either an Equalization Member or as a Youth Delegate. I have served on the Emerging Leaders Team since 2016. I have been honored to represent my church, district, and youth at AC and would be honored to have the opportunity to do so again. |
| Ron | Heustis | South | Trinity UMC, New Albany | Male | White | 66 - 75 years old | No | | I am interested in serving the South District and learning more about the workings of the Annual Conference. |
| Jim | Hughes | South | New Hope Salem | Male | White | 66 - 75 years old | Yes | 5 | I believe the United Methodist Church should be the most welcoming, open, accepting church on the face of the earth. I think it should stand with the poor and outcasts, just as Jesus did. We are all equal in the eyes of God and all God's children. As an equalization member, I have always voted along those lines and would continue to do so. |
| Roger | Ketterer | South | Centenary UMC, New Albany | Male | White | 76 years or older | Yes | 2 | Having served for 2 Annual Conferences I have gained much experience in the operation of the UMC. Also I am the UMM Indiana Vice President & South District President. |
| Steve | Palmquist | South | Wall Street UMC Jeffersonville | Male | White | 66 - 75 years old | Yes | 1 | I believe strongly that the United Methodist Church should be open and welcoming to all. I want to help us as a denomination move in that direction. I have been an active and engaged member of Wall Street UMC for over 40 years. I have demonstrated leadership skills by serving on and chairing most standing committees in our congregation and have also served as a lay member of the Indiana Conference Council on Finance and Administration. I believe I can use my skills and understanding of church doctrine to be an effective delegate at Annual Conference. |
