I am submitting the following works by email for possible inclusion in “Shaping Peace: An Artistic Call for Change” (list by title):

Artist Responsibilities: It is my intention to exhibit my artwork, in cooperation with the organization known as United Methodist Churches of Indiana. I understand that selected work will be exhibited at St. Luke's United Methodist Church, Indianapolis, IN.

I understand that selected work must be delivered by me at times designated by United Methodist Churches in Indiana and be in good condition, with labels secured. 2-D works must be ready to hang, and pedestals provided as needed for 3-D works. I agree to leave selected work for the duration of the exhibit and to pick up my work at St. Luke's United Methodist Church during posted pickup times.

Liability: I understand that the area where my work will be displayed is in a part of the building that may be open to the public, day and evening. With this understanding, I release United Methodist Churches of Indiana, St. Luke's United Methodist Church, and its participating venues, its members and officers, from any liability for loss, theft, or damage to any piece of artwork, frame, pedestals, or other materials/items I submit.

Reproduction: I agree to allow United Methodist Churches of Indiana to reproduce artwork for educational, publicity and archival purposes including, but not limited to: an online gallery, newspapers, online calendars, websites, blogs, and other social media outlets.

This agreement is executed and effective this date: _____.
