

INDIANA EXTENSION COURSE OF STUDY SCHOOL
COS 121 Bible 1, Introduction
Meeting in Indianapolis, Fall 2024

Instructor: Rev. Britt Leslie Ph.D.
Cell: 219-201-1623
E-Mail: prof.bleslie@gmail.com

This course introduces biblical interpretation. Attention is given to the inspiration, formation, and function of the canon and to the development of a methodology of interpretation consistent with the nature of scripture. The importance of the Bible as a witness to the life and faith of ancient Israel and earliest Christianity will be emphasized. Students will be able to:

1. Articulate the place of scripture in the life of the congregation and the role of the pastor in interpretation.
2. Understand the inspiration and formation of the canon and its authority within the community of faith.
3. Understand and apply historical, literary, and theological approaches to various types of literature in scripture using Genesis, Amos and Zephaniah, Mark, and Philippians.
4. Develop a method of exegesis consistent with the nature and authority of the Bible.

Format: This is an in-person web assisted course. This means that there will be no aspect of the course that will be required to complete for a grade. For example you will not have to complete a discussion forum that will be graded. There will be material such as handouts, videos, and guided lessons that will be available to you. Most of which you will be required to read/watch/complete just like you are expected to complete textbook readings.

Required Textbooks: I know this is a hefty startup price but please note that the required Study Bible, Dictionary, and Commentary will be used in this class and in future COS classes, as well as being valuable additions to your pastoral library. You may already own the some of these from License to Preach School.

Supplemental Textbooks:

Yeh! Like you need another book to buy! $0

Note that the abbreviations in brackets [] are used in the syllabus to indicate that resource. An advantage of the NISB is its introductory articles to books of the Bible and also the excursuses*. I will assign these in reading assignments. An intro to a biblical book is at the beginning of that book in this study bible. Excursuses appear throughout this book. The list of excurses by subject is found on pg. xxiv - xxv. A list by title of the particular excursus follows on pg. xxv - xxvi. (* an excursus is a useful article set apart from the main text that explains an aspect of the text or a related issue.)

Grading: Letter grades are assigned.

The final grade for the course is based upon how well the student fulfills all the requirements of the course. Attendance in all of the sessions is required. See the “Course Expectations” chart below.
